Panasonic DECT Wireless Solution for Automobile Dealerships

Anytime, Anywhere Access

Panasonic DECT handsets allow you to roam freely and still communicate seamlessly and effectively. Unlike landline phones, DECT handsets allow you to be on the move and still be productive. You can take important calls without leaving the showroom floor, display lot, or service area, insuring you never miss a call.

Models for Every Need

The DECT business line from Panasonic includes standard, compact, and ruggedized models. The ruggedized KX-TD7696 is recommended for service centers and automotive repair shops where rough handling may be encountered. The compact KX-TD7695 is great for sales personnel who are always on the move as it fits snugly in a suit pocket.

Seamless Communication

You can smoothly transfer calls from a DECT wireless handset to a Panasonic desk phone, so you can continue the conversation even when you return to your desk.
